

Draft Protester Found Innocent

Betsy McDonald has been found innocent by a City Court jury on a charge of disorderly conduct in connection with an anti draft demonstration in downtown Tucson on Dec. 4. City Magistrate Charles Gatewood heard the case Thursday. Miss McDonald said her activities were peaceful.