Salary Increase Granted Amphitheater Teachers

By HELEN PASTERNAK
Amphitheater District school teachers will receive salary boosts of $360 to $410 next year as a result of action taken by the school board last night.
School administrators declined to guess how much the pay hikes would affect the budget for the coming school year.

Patrolman Hurt Chasing Stolen Car

Patrolman Frank L. Green was injured last night when his motorcycle slipped on a wet street while chasing a stolen car.
Green, 34, of 407 E. 10th St., was admitted to St. Mary's Hospital for treatment of a right knee fracture and right elbow abrasions.
The man being chased by Green abandoned the car a short distance from the accident scene and fled on foot. The auto belongs to Carl Stockton, 1305 E. Broadway St., who reported the theft.

Big Car Compacted

DALLAS, Tex. — (AP) — Jim James (77) got a compact car the last night after his 1957 Buick Wildcat was crushed by a truck and another truck hit him in the rear.
James said he parked the auto on North Olive road near the university about 2:45 p.m. He said it was missing when he returned for it about 8:30 p.m.
Green said he was trying to pull the motorist over for a traffic violation and the car made a right turn onto Olive from 34th at a high rate of speed.
The passenger said he cut inside in order to avoid colliding with the bus and the motorcycle overturned when he hit a pothole.

McDonald Group May Reject Offer

By PETER STARBUCK
The Committee Against Ringing Tucson with Titans yesterday was offered an opportunity to explain its case to local Air Force officers—in lieu of a presentation to an expert team from Washington—but indicated today it may turn the offer down.

Cost Factor Determines Pad Sites

Col. William C. Bacon, commanding officer of the 30th Bomb Wing and senior officer at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, yesterday made the offer in a letter to Dr. James McDonald, University of Arizona physicist and chairman of the anti-ringing committee.
Bacon refused to state in McDonald's case on the grounds of atomic fallout from money attack.

Downwind Theory Gains 'Listener'

Congressman George Mahon, (D-Tex.) chairman of the House subcommittee on Defense Department appropriations, has expressed an interest in the downwind fallout case developed by Dr. James McDonald and the Committee Against Ringing Tucson with Titans.
In a letter sent McDonald, Mahon said: "I have been concerned over the fact that our people are making great targets of some of our most populous areas."
