
* * * *

UA physicist James E. McDonald wants the United Nations to begin a global study of Unidentified Flying Objects (UFOs).

Mr. McDonald says that Sec.-Gen. U Thant is "very much interested" in the problem.

It is good to know that U Thant has another interest now that he no longer has any practical interest in the primary purpose of the United Nations.

* * * *
